

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Carroll Tomorrow

Carrollton, Georgia

Vice President of Economic Development

Overview. Carroll Tomorrow, based in Carrollton, Georgia, has retained The Chason Group to lead an executive level search for a Vice President of Economic Development. Tim Chason and Randy Cardoza of The Chason Group (www.thechasongroup.com) are working with the community's leadership to facilitate the process.

About the Community. Located in West Georgia, Carroll County is 30 miles west of downtown Atlanta and close to many other southeastern metropolitan areas. The population of the community is 119,992 based on the latest US Census Bureau data. The median age is 34.5. The county has seven municipalities, with Carrollton serving as the county seat. Others include Bowdon, Bremen, Mount Zion, Roopville, Temple, Villa Rica and Whitesburg. The citizens of Carroll County have committed to maintaining greenspace and providing access to outdoor activities and past times – striking a balance between growth and development.

About Carroll Tomorrow. Established in 2001, Carroll Tomorrow is a unique countywide public-private economic development organization that serves as the staff for Carroll County's four industrial development authorities. In concert with city and county leaders, Carroll Tomorrow works closely with state economic developers and site selection consultants to support expansion of existing business and recruit new companies to the area. The economic development initiative is a "one stop shop" for businesses seeking growth opportunities.

The Position. The Vice President of Economic Development is responsible for leading the focused effort to increase investment and support the creation of new, high-quality jobs in Carroll County and the expansion and maintenance of existing jobs in the community. The professional leader is accountable for both commercial and industrial recruitment as well as maintenance of existing employers. The overall goal is to expand the local tax base. Other responsibilities include: property data base maintenance; project lead development; site visits; providing leadership and guidance to development authorities; oversight of all daily operations and budgets; and, in collaboration with the community, developing and implementing an economic development strategic plan. The Vice President represents Carroll Tomorrow at meetings with clients, investors, and developers.

Qualifications. Candidates apply for the economic development position should hold of a Bachelor's degree, ideally with an MBA or other post-graduate work, from an accredited college, in the field(s) of economic development, business, real estate, marketing, or a related field; or equivalent experience. Applicants should have a minimum of three years of management, executive and strategic leadership experience in the economic and/or community development field.
